

Implicit Bias in the Academy: Meeting the Challenge

Friday, January 23
10:30am
Reitz Union Grand Ballroom

Dr. Benjamin Reese

President, National Association of Diversity Officers in Higher Education, Vice President, Office for Institutional Equity, Duke University

Benjamin Reese is vice president of the Office for Institutional Equity at Duke University and Duke University Health System and a licensed clinical psychologist. His office oversees diversity, inclusion, affirmative action/equal opportunity activities and harassment/discrimination prevention for the university and the health system. He is also an adjunct faculty member in the Department of Community & Family Medicine.

Before moving to North Carolina, he was the associate executive director of the Fifth Ave. Center for Counseling and Psychotherapy in New York City, a practicing clinical psychologist, the ombudsperson for the Rockefeller Foundation, and founder and director of The Institute for the Study of Culture and Ethnicity in Manhattan.

He has represented both the International Council of Psychologists and the World Federation for Mental Health (Non-Governmental Organizations) at the United Nations. He currently serves on the boards of Wake Technical Community College, the National Association of Diversity Officers in Higher Education (founding member and conference chair), One World Market and The Forest at Duke (retirement community).

Visit www.hr.ufl.edu/council-on-diversity for selected readings and event information

Small Group Discussions

Join the campus community in a small group discussion to explore the concepts from the readings (listed to the right) prior to Dr. Reese's address on Friday, January 23rd.

January 9
12:00-1:30pm
Library West, Room 212

January 16
12:00-1:30pm
Library West, Room 212

Campus Readings

Implicit Association Test – Take 2 tests
(<http://bit.ly/implicit-test>)

How Diversity Makes Us Smarter
(<http://bit.ly/diversity-makes-us-smarter>)

Standards of Professional Practice for CDOs
(<http://bit.ly/nadohe-standards>)

President's Council on Diversity

Free and Open to the Public

George A. Smathers
Libraries
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA