University of Florida Title IX Process

STUDENT CASES

Title IX allegations received through multiple channels

Title IX Coordinator notified and reviews allegations

Title IX Coordinator or designated Title IX staff member conducts intake meeting with Reporting Party and refers for interim measures and accommodations (if needed). It is also determined if the alleged incident is still within the Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution (SCCR) time limits [Refer to Student Conduct Code 4.040(6)(c)(1)(a)(b)]

Reporting Party wishes to pursue a Formal Title IX Investigation or an Informal Resolution

Formal Investigation: Title IX Coordinator or designated Title IX staff member conducts intake meeting with Reporting Party and notifies of allegations and investigation

Title IX Coordinator assigns case to investigator(s), investigation is conducted and report is drafted

Title IX report review is conducted

Title IX Coordinator or designated Title IX staff meets with Reporting and Responding Parties (separately) to view final report

Final Title IX report is sent to SCCR for consideration of Student Code of Conduct charges using the preponderance of evidence standard (Refer to the SCCR process for further information)

Not enough information to proceed or does not fall under Title IX – Case closed or referred to appropriate entity

Reporting Party requests privacy

No further action taken against Responding Party

Exception: The Title IX Coordinator will further assess reported allegations involving violent behavior, use of a weapon, a significant health/safety concern and the presence of multiple reports of the same Responding Party. It may be determined that further action is warranted to ensure the safety of the UF Community. This action may include an investigation.

Informal Resolution: Title IX Coordinator or designated Title IX staff informs Responding Party of allegations and discusses the informal resolution process

Exception: The Title IX Coordinator will further assess reported allegations involving violent behavior, use of a weapon, a significant health/safety concern and the presence of multiple reports of the same Responding Party. It may be determined that further action is warranted to ensure the safety of the UF Community. This action may include an investigation.
