University of Florida Title IX Process STUDENT CASES

Reporting Party requests no investigation Title IX allegations received through multiple channels and no further action Not enough information to proceed or does not fall under Title IX – Case closed or referred to appropriate entity Title IX Coordinator notified and reviews allegations Support services will continue to be provided. Title IX Coordinator or designated Title IX staff member conducts Reporting Party wishes to pursue a investigation will intake meeting with Reporting Party and refers for interim measures Formal Title IX Investigation or an be conducted and accommodations (if needed). It is also determined if the alleged Informal Resolution unless the incident is still within the Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution Reporting Party (SCCR) time limits [Refer to Student Conduct Code 4.040(6)(c)(1)(a)(b)] makes that Informal Resolution: Title IX Coordinator or designated Title IX staff informs Responding Party of allegations and discusses the informal Formal Investigation: Title IX Coordinator or Exception: The Title IX resolution process designated Title IX staff member conducts Coordinator will further assess intake meeting with Responding Party and reported allegations involving notifies of allegations and investigation violent behavior, use of a weapon, a significant health/safety concern and the presence of multiple reports of the same Responding Title IX Coordinator assigns case to Party. It may be determined that investigator(s), investigation is further action is warranted to conducted and report is drafted ensure the safety of the UF Community. This action may include an investigation. Title IX report review is conducted

> Final Title IX report is sent to SCCR for consideration of Student Code of Conduct charges using the preponderance of evidence standard (Refer to the SCCR process for further information)

Title IX Coordinator or designated Title IX staff meets with Reporting and Responding Parties (separately) to view final report