

ARTICLE 23
OTHER FACULTY MEMBER RIGHTS

23.1 Constitutional Rights of Faculty. Nothing in this Agreement shall be understood to diminish the constitutional rights faculty members have as citizens of the United States or the State of Florida, or to diminish the right of such faculty member to exercise those rights. Any alleged violation of such rights shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure of this Agreement, but shall be subject to vindication only by a court of competent jurisdiction.

23.2 Limitation on Personal Liability.

(a) If a faculty member is sued for an act, event, or omission which may fall within the scope of Section 768.28, Florida Statutes, the faculty member should notify the General Counsel's office as soon as possible after receipt of the summons commencing the action in order that the University may fulfill its obligation. Failure to notify the University promptly may affect the rights of the parties.

(b) For information purposes, the pertinent language of Section 768.28(9), Florida Statutes, is reproduced below, as follows:

No officer, employee, or agent of the State or of any of its sub-divisions shall be held personally liable in tort or named as a party defendant in any action for any injury or damage suffered as a result of any act, event or omission of action in the scope of her or his employment or function, unless such officer, employee or agent acted in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton or willful disregard of human rights, safety or property.

23.3 Free University Courses.

(a) Full-time faculty members may enroll for up to six (6) credit hours of instruction at the University per term (Fall, Spring, or Summer) without payment of tuition or fees, subject only to the restrictions listed in subsections 23.3(a)(1) through 23.3(a)(4), below. Visiting faculty members are excluded under this section, but faculty members who are on sabbaticals or on professional development or grants-in-aid leave are included.

(1) To qualify for this benefit, the faculty member must have completed six (6) months of continuous employment and be employed by the University on the date the course begins. Faculty members with a principal place of employment outside of Alachua County are eligible to apply for enrollment in up to six (6) hours of instruction per semester at the state university in Florida closest to the place of employment.

(2) The following types of courses are excluded: thesis, dissertation, internships, directed individual study, individual performance courses, non-credit courses, and sponsored credit programs, off-book programs, and some distance education course offerings.

(3) If a faculty member enrolls for a course that meets during hours of the faculty member's regularly scheduled duties, all time taken during that period, including time taken in traveling to and from classes, shall be charged to annual or compensatory leave or leave without pay, unless the work schedule has been adjusted to accommodate the class, subject to approval by the appropriate supervisor. Supervisors shall endeavor to rearrange the teaching schedules of faculty members who wish to take a class.

(4) In order for a course to qualify under this provision, the faculty member must complete all required forms.

(b) A faculty member may attend any University course on a non-credit and space available basis, subject to the instructor's permission.

(c) The benefits under this section shall not be treated in accordance with the University's section 127 Plan.

23.4 The University shall provide faculty the same benefits it provides to all employees for: tuition exchange benefits, parking, and bus service. The University shall consult with UFF prior to making changes in these benefits.
